DALC CONFERENCE 2021: TUESDAY 5 OCTOBER PROGRAMME

12:45 13:00 13:15 13:30 13:45 Supporting Devon's economy: how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. 14:15 14:30 14:45 15:10 Panel: Young People Panel: Young People Local Councils the professionalism and good-running of the council. Improving community engage with a wider audience and build new conversations the community? In this short workshop Breakthrough Communications will share some advice on how to engage with your community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Clir Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Clir Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they new they they they new they they they new they they new they they they new they they they new they they they they new they they they new they they they they new they they they they new they they they they they they they new they they they they new they they they they they they they they		Zoom Room 1		Zoom Room 2
Meet the DALC Trains find out how we operate and how you can engage with us and discover the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new derks and councilles. Meet the DALC Trains find out how we operate and how you can engage with us and discover the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new derks and councilles. Current and future priorities for Devon.	TIME	SUBJECT/TOPIC	DESCRIPTION	SUBJECT/TOPIC	DESCRIPTION
DAIC induction DAIC induction Meet the DAIC Trans find out how we operate and how you can engage with us; and discover the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and council induced in the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and council induced in the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and council induced in the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and council induced in the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and council induced in the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and councils and ward members and future priorities for Decomption in the Decomption	09:30	Welcome address
Meet the DALC Frame, find out how we operate and how you can engage with but and documellors. DALC Induction Induction DALC	09:45
1030 DAIC induction discover the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and councillors.	10:00	DALC Induction	discover the services your councils can access. An ideal session for new clerks and
10-45 11-90	10:15
Current and future priorities for Devon Council Council 11:15 12:30 Working with principal authority councillors 12:15 12:30 12:15 13:30 13:45 13:30 13:45 13:30 13:45 13:50 13:45 13:50 13:45 13:50 13:5	10:30
priorities for Devon Council Council 11:130 11:45 12:00 Working with principal authority councillors 12:15 12:30 12:45 13:30 13:30 13:30 13:45 Supporting Devon's economy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon County Council's Economies Team will share an update on the current state of Devon's economy; to recover post Covid 14:45 Panel: Young People Panel: Young People Panel: Young People This art and Sir Roy Post Intervention of Council should be a made with young people? We are delighted to welcome council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response. With Scribe (description pending) With S	10:45
11:15 Council Council 11:30 11:43 12:50 12:51 12:52 12:52 12:53 12:54 12:55 12	11:00		Cllr John Hart and Cllr Roger Croad will highlight DCC's priorities for the coming term with a
11:45 12:00 Working with principal authority councillors 12:15 12:30 12:43 12:43 13:45 13:30 13:45 14:59 Panel: Young People How and why should council engage with young people in their community. 15:45 Panel: Young People How and why should council engage with young people in their community. Positive working relationships between parishs and agriculture foliage and explore what we believe a good working relationship looks like between parishs can deprincipal authoritys councillors which predicts the professionalism and good running of the council. This training programme will give you the confidence to start using digital mapping software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and incredict the professionalism and good running of the council. This training programme will give you the confidence to start using digital mapping software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and incredict the professionalism and good running of the council. The training programme will give you the confidence to start using digital mapping software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and incredict the professionalism and good running of the council. This training programme will give you the confidence to start using digital mapping software in your local council. The professionalism and good running of the council. The community? In this short workshop Breakthrough Communications will share some advice on how to engage with your community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	11:15	•	focus on their communities work and working with p/t councils.		With Scribe (description pending)
Positive working relationships between parish councils and ward members. A workshop with breakthrough Communications to challenge and explore what we believe a good working relationship looks like between parishes and principal authorities members, and embracing news ways of working together in a post covid environment. Positive working relationship books like between parishes and principal authorities members, and embracing news ways of working together in a post covid environment. Digital Mapping for Local Councils	11:30		with Breakthrough Communications to challenge and explore what we believe a good working relationship looks like between parishes and principal authorities members, and
12:10 12:20 12:21 12:23 12:24 12:25 12:29 12:24 12:25 12:29 12:25 12:26 12:26 12:27 12:28 12:29	11:45
12:30 Embracing news ways of working together in a post covid environment. Digital Mapping for Local Councils This training programme will give you the confidence to start using digital mapping software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and increase the professionalism and good-running of the council.	12:00
12:30 13:30 13:35 Supporting Devon's economy to recover post Covid 14:15 14:30 14:45 15:15 Panel: Young People Council Supporting People Council Supporting Devon's economy to recover post Covid How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Cilr Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Cilr Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town council about their work engaging with young people in their community. How and why should councils engage with young people in their community. This training programme will give you the confidence to start using digital mapping software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and incretise the professionalism and good-running of the council. The software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and incretise the professionalism and good-running of the council. Improving community engagement for local councils want to engage with a wider audience and build new conversations. Devon County Council's Economies Team will share an update on the current state of Devon's economy, how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future for local councils and the community? In this short workshop Breakthrough Communications will share some advice on how to engage with your community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Cilr Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Cilr Olie Tucker (Axminster Town engagement for local councils and the community? In this short workshop Breakthrough Communications will share some advice on how to engage with your community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. The evolution of neighbourhood planing in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	12:15				software in your local council. The software will help you save time and money and increase
13:30 13:45 Supporting Devon's economy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon County Council's Economies Team will share an update on the current state of Devon's economy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Does your council want to engage with a wider audience and build new conversations the community? In this short workshop Breakthrough Communications will share some advice on how to engage with you community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Clir Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Clir Ollie Tucker (Axminister Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	12:30
13:15 13:30 13:45 Supporting Devon's conomy to recover post Covid 14:10 14:15 14:30 14:45 15:30 15:30 15:30 16:45 Panel: Young People 16:40 16:40 17:40 17:40 18	12:45
13:30 13:45 Supporting Devon's economy to recover post Covid 14:00 14:15 14:30 14:45 15:00 15:15 Panel: Young People 15:45 Devon Countly Council seconomies Team will share an update on the current state of Devon's economy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon Council seconomy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon Council seconomy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Does your council want to engage with a wider audience and build new conversations where community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Clir Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Clir Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	13:00
Supporting Devon's economy to recover post Covid 14:15 14:30 14:45 15:00 15:15 Panel: Young People 15:45 Devon County Council seconomies Team will share an update on the current state of future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon County Council's Economies Team will share an update on the current state of future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon County Council's Economies Team will share an update on the current state of future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon County Council's Economies Team will share an update on the current state of future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon County Council's Improving community help advice on how to engage with your community, including engaging with young people, using social media, and getting started on building two-way conversations. How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Cllr Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Cllr Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	13:15
13:45 Supporting Devon's economy to recover post Covid 14:15 14:30 14:45 15:00 15:15 Panel: Young People 15:30 15:45 Devon County Council's Economies Feam will share an update on the current state of pevon's economy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. Devon's economy; how DCC and are others are supporting the recovery; what does the future hold and how parish/town councils can help. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	13:30
14:15 14:30 14:45 15:00 15:15 Panel: Young People 15:30 15:45 Panel: Young People 15:45 Panel: Young Peo	13:45		·		Does your council want to engage with a wider audience and build new conversations in the community? In this short workshop Breakthrough Communications will share some
14:30 14:45 15:00 15:15 Panel: Young People 15:30 15:45 Panel: Young People 15:45 How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome cllr Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Cllr Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of Stuart Todd Associates, will discuss the future of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	14:00
15:30 15:30 Panel: Young People 15:30 15:45 How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Clir Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Clir Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	14:15
15:00 15:15 Panel: Young People 15:30 15:45 How and why should councils engage with younger people? We are delighted to welcome Clir Keely Allin (Great Torrington Town Council) and Clir Ollie Tucker (Axminster Town Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	14:30
15:15 Panel: Young People 15:30 Panel: Young People 15:45 Panel: Young People Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	14:45
15:15 Panel: Young People 15:30 15:30 Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they became councillors and their tips for encouraging others to stand. We will also hear from a council about their work engaging with young people in their community. The evolution of neighbourhood planning in the context of Stuart Todd Associates, will discuss the future of neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	15:00
15:30 council about their work engaging with young people in their community. planning planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change health and pandemic response.	15:15	Panel: Young People	Council) who will be giving their insights as young councillors themselves; find out why they		Based on his experience working on over 50 neighbourhood plans, Stuart Todd, chartered town planner and Director of Stuart Todd Associates, will discuss the future of
15:45	15:30			_	neighbourhood planning in the context of the changing planning system, climate change, health and pandemic response.
16:00 END	15:45				Victorial Committee
	16:00

Please note that the information provided in this programme may be subject to change at any time.